Arrive: 6:00am LHS (time approx) Students go home and sleep, the trip has been approved as a two-day field trip. Students are excused for 3/16 & 3/17

Money: Your lunch and dinner are included in the fee (Not Hard Rock)
Additional costs:
* You will have to pay for your breakfast and late night snack at Hard Rock café.
*If you like theatre souvenirs there will be many show t-shirts, posters, etc. to tempt you!

Supplies: Wear Good walking shoes. Do Not Wear New Shoes For the First Time –they are guaranteed to give you blisters!!!
Once in the city, we will be walking everywhere.

Dress for comfort, but keep it respectable! No shorts, grubby t-shirts, ripped up or written on jeans, etc. Dress in layers, in case weather changes. Bring raingear and umbrellas.

Bring creature comforts for the bus, pillows, blankets, snacks, etc. Nothing valuable Please! You will be able to leave things on the bus. However, once we are dropped off in NYC, you will not be able to get back to the bus until we head back for home!

Cameras: There are bound to be many memorable moments.
Opera Glasses or Binoculars, if you want to get "Up close and personal" during the show.

The day is heavily scheduled: there will not be any free time. We have tours, seminars with actors and production people. Do try to get some sleep Tuesday night!

If I missed anything, just ask me. I know you will have a great time. See you early Wednesday morning. If you have trouble getting out of bed most mornings, please make arrangements with somebody else on the trip to give you a wake up call. WE CANNOT WAIT FOR LATECOMMERS!

If you have any questions, please call me, Phyliss Jaffe at 703-287-2821 or email me at pjaffe@fcps.edu
